Styer driver James Bell recently stopped by H.Q. in Lakeville, and snapped up some Planet Fitness gear!

If you didn't already know, Styer has a strategic partnership in place with one of best customers Life Fitness.

Our partnership with Life goes back a few years now, and we are always looking for ways to support each other. While our drivers are out for deliveries at the PF locations you may notice some of the inbound crew wearing Styer hats!

Swing by upstairs if you want one of these sharp Thumbs Up shirts, or a nice Trucker Style PF hat!

Get yours before they're gone!
